TEJEDA

7TH AND 8TH OF FEBRUARY

TOURIST DAY

It's been ten years now since we dedicate this special day to the international tourists which are visiting our island and particularly our village, from other countries. A true example of Canarian culture and identity, condensed in the streets of Tejeda and which, year after year, leaves such a good impression on those who visit us.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 7

MUSICAL ENTERTAINMENT

Throughout the day, various folk music groups will entertain our visitors on the main street of the village.

CANARY ISLANDS TRADITIONS

Threshing, goat milking and sheep shearing demonstrations, wool workshops, cheese making, donkey rides, Canarian Wrestling, Shepherd's Leap and Stick Fighting.

FOOD TASTING

The various neighborhoods associations of Tejeda will offer a varied selection of tapas made with local products and traditional recipes. Some of them are:

Meat with wrinkled potatoes, meat sandwiches, cheese, chorizo, chickpea stew, watercress stew, wrinkled potatoes with mojo sauce, rice pudding, pork rinds, carnival tortillas, local wine, fried pork, handmade bread, roast leg of pork, grilled sardines, hot chocolate, orange liqueur, almond cake and much more.
